

Name _____

Night of the Living Spirits

Short Answer Key

1. The friends found a hidden cemetery in the dark forest. They decided to enter it out of curiosity, despite the rumors of it being haunted.
2. The hidden cemetery had ancient tombstones, marigold flowers, and candles. What made it unique was that it was a resting place for spirits who came alive on the Day of the Dead.
3. The spirits came alive on Halloween night to celebrate the Day of the Dead. They interacted with the children by dancing, sharing stories, and forming a bond of friendship.
4. Some lessons and experiences the children gained included learning about history, culture, and the importance of honoring loved ones who had passed away. They also discovered the magic and connections that could be found on Halloween night.
5. As they left the cemetery, the children felt grateful and enlightened, having learned about the importance of honoring loved ones and the rich history shared by the spirits.

