Groundhog's Guiding Wing: A Tale of Friendship and Teamwork

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Encourage students to share personal experiences and reflect on the impact of friends or family members providing assistance in a time of need.
2. Encourage students to think about how kindness and teamwork can be valuable in their own lives and provide examples from everyday situations or events.
3. Students can use their imagination to describe how they would have contributed to the mission and what unique qualities or skills they possess.
4. Encourage students to reflect on the emotions of the characters and why they felt the way they did at the end of the story, considering the actions and events that took place.
