The Lighthouse Ghost Mystery

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Captain Jack decided to investigate the mysterious voice because he couldn't sleep, and Sailor was barking at it. He wanted to find out what was causing the strange sounds because he felt that it might be something important or someone in need of help. He cared about the safety of ships and sailors, so he took the voice seriously.
2. The journal helped Captain Jack uncover the truth about the lost sailor's disappearance and the hidden treasure by providing clues and information. It contained entries about the sailor named William and mentioned the treasure on the island. These clues guided Captain Jack in his search and eventually led him to both the lost sailor and the treasure.
3. Captain Jack helped the lost sailor find peace by giving him a proper burial, which allowed his spirit to rest peacefully. He also used the treasure he found to repair the lighthouse, ensuring that it could guide ships safely through the dangerous waters. This act not only honored the sailor's memory but also benefited sailors in the future.
4. The brighter shining lighthouse symbolizes that peace has been restored to the lost sailor's spirit. It signifies that Captain Jack and Sailor have successfully solved the mystery and brought closure to the haunting voice that had been troubling them. It also represents the renewed function of the lighthouse, which can now guide ships more effectively.
