

Name _____

Pilgrim Pranksgiving

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The laughter and camaraderie during the "Pilgrim Pranksgiving" helped strengthen the bond between the Pilgrims and Native Americans by creating a shared experience and fostering a sense of unity. It allowed them to see each other in a new light and appreciate the joy of togetherness.
2. Answers will vary, but students might describe the kind of turkey costume they would create, such as using colorful feathers, cardboard beaks, and playful accessories. They could also explain how they would join in the fun by participating in the turkey chase and making people laugh.
3. Humor and laughter are important elements of celebrations like Thanksgiving because they bring people closer together, relieve stress, and create positive memories. They help build a sense of community and add joy to the festivities.
4. The "Pilgrim Pranksgiving" tradition might have influenced the way Thanksgiving is celebrated today by emphasizing the importance of laughter, camaraderie, and the spirit of togetherness. It reminds us that Thanksgiving is about more than just food; it's about creating meaningful connections with others. This tradition is important to remember to ensure that Thanksgiving remains a time of unity and joy.

