Greedy Mistakes

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The Once-ler could have planted new trees as he cut some down to keep the forest healthy while still making Thneeds.
2. He likely regrets his actions because he lost everything and now understands the damage he caused.
3. The story relates to real-life issues like deforestation, air pollution, and companies harming the environment for profit.
4. I would plant the seed in a safe place and teach people to care for the trees so they don't get cut down again.
