

Order of Importance

A text organized in order of importance puts the most important information first, and the less important information later.

Read the assigned text. What is this text about?

What is the most important thing that the author says in this text? Read the assigned text. What is this text about?

3. List the author's additional points below, in the order in which they appear in the text. Use only the bullets you need.

-
-
-
-

4. Identify a key phrase or sentence from the text that tells the reader how this text is structured.
