

Indefinite Plural Pronouns

A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun. Choose an indefinite plural pronoun that can replace each underlined word or words. Use each word only once.

most	some	both	few
others	many	several	all

1. Kids played outside in the rain.

2. I saw only two birds this morning.

3. A lot of your things are expensive.

4. I like most people. I don't like some people.

5. I have two or three assignments to do.

6. I have two dogs. My dogs are adorable.

7. I love my neighbors. Almost all of my neighbors are friendly.

8. Paul wanted cookies. I gave him cookies.

