

ANSWERS

Alliteration: the intentional repetition of letter sounds in nearby words. Example: Roger's rabbit

Assonance: Assonance is a resemblance in the sounds of words/syllables either between their vowels or between their consonants. Example: penitence, reticence

Consonance: repetition of identical or similar consonants in neighboring words whose vowel sounds are different. Example: discreet, shut