A cliffhanger is a point in a story at which characters are left in a difficult and unresolved situation at the end of a story, chapter, or episode, creating suspense for the reader or audience. The function of the cliffhanger is to entice the audience read or watch the next chapter, installment, or episode to find out what happens. A thriller is a story intended to evoke strong emotions like anxiety, tension, suspense, and fear in its readers or viewers. The thriller accomplishes this by the use of specific techniques that continually add and increase tension in the story, such as the cliffhanger.
