

Name _____

Sweet Hearts in the Chocolate Factory

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Lucy and Max shared a passion for crafting sweet treats and had a love for chocolate. Their shared interests and talents in the kitchen made them a perfect team both at work and in their romantic relationship.
2. Their love for chocolate and culinary skills led to the creation of best-selling chocolates and desserts at the factory, which boosted the factory's profits. Eventually, they opened their own chocolate and dessert shop.
3. The chocolate-themed feast symbolized their love and appreciation for their coworkers and their passion for creating sweet treats. It also highlighted their desire to share joy and happiness through their culinary creations.
4. Over the years, their friendship deepened into a romantic relationship. They continued to bond over their love for chocolate and sweet treats, eventually opening their own chocolate and dessert shop to share their creations with others and build a life together.

