

Name _____

Mouse Mayhem

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How is If You Take a Mouse to School different from If You Give a Mouse a Cookie?
  - a) It takes place in a school instead of at home.
  - b) The mouse stays calm and follows all the rules.
  - c) The mouse decides not to ask for anything.
  - d) The boy goes on an adventure instead of the mouse.

2. How does the mouse behave differently from other animals in the series?
  - a) He waits patiently for things to happen.
  - b) He takes charge and explores everything at school.
  - c) He stays focused on one thing at a time.
  - d) He is quieter and more careful than the other animals.

3. Why might If You Take a Mouse to School feel more familiar to young readers?
  - a) It includes activities like schoolwork, lunch, and recess.
  - b) It is much shorter than the other books.
  - c) It has fewer characters than the other books.
  - d) It takes place in a jungle, where most kids go to school.

4. What is a common feature of all the books in the series?
  - a) The main character asks for one thing and is satisfied.
  - b) The characters in each book are completely different.
  - c) The animals in the stories never get into trouble.
  - d) Each story follows a pattern of one event leading to another.

5. What makes If You Take a Mouse to School feel faster-paced than If You Give a Pig a Pancake?
  - a) The mouse follows a clear routine at school.
  - b) The story takes place in one location only.
  - c) The mouse moves quickly from one activity to another with lots of energy.
  - d) The story focuses mostly on eating pancakes.

