

Name _____

Fading Beauty

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How is the setting described at the beginning of The Lorax?
 - A) Bright, colorful, and full of life
 - B) Dark and polluted
 - C) Cold and snowy
 - D) A busy city with many factories

2. What causes the setting to change from beautiful to polluted?
 - A) A terrible storm
 - B) The Once-ler cutting down trees and building factories
 - C) The Lorax leaving the land
 - D) The animals deciding to leave on their own

3. Why do the Humming-Fish leave the area?
 - A) They do not like the Swomee-Swans.
 - B) The river is too polluted for them to survive.
 - C) The Once-ler captures them for his factory.
 - D) They want to explore new waters.

4. What does the ruined land at the end of the story symbolize?
 - A) A world that is too cold for animals to live in
 - B) A place where the Lorax will return and fix everything
 - C) The success of the Once-ler's business
 - D) The consequences of destroying the environment

5. What does the last Truffula seed represent?
 - A) A way to start a new Thneed business
 - B) The Once-ler's regret for what he did
 - C) Hope that the forest can be restored if people take action
 - D) A reward for the Once-ler's hard work

