

Name _____

Finding Belonging

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why do the Greasers feel a strong sense of belonging to their group?
 - a) They are all rich and powerful.
 - b) They have supportive families at home.
 - c) They don't have much, so they rely on each other like family.
 - d) They go to the same school as the Socs.

2. How does Cherry Valance change Ponyboy's view of the Socs?
 - a) She proves that all Socs are mean.
 - b) She shows him that Socs have problems too.
 - c) She tells him to stop being a Greaser.
 - d) She refuses to talk to him because he's a Greaser.

3. What does Johnny's heroic act at the church fire show about him?
 - a) He only cares about himself.
 - b) He wants to impress the Socs.
 - c) He is more than just a Greaser—he is brave and kind.
 - d) He is afraid and refuses to help.

4. What does Johnny mean when he tells Ponyboy to "stay gold"?
 - a) To forget about his past and move away.
 - b) To become rich like the Socs.
 - c) To fight harder against the Socs.
 - d) To stay true to himself and not become hardened by the world.

5. How does Ponyboy's understanding of belonging change by the end of the novel?
 - a) He realizes that identity is more than being a Greaser or a Soc.
 - b) He decides to leave his friends and join the Socs.
 - c) He becomes more violent to prove himself.
 - d) He refuses to believe that the Socs have struggles.

