Gravy Showdown: Family Feud on Thanksgiving

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Imagine you were one of the judges at the Thanksgiving cook-off. Describe the taste and characteristics of the Johnsons' gravy and the Andersons' gravy, and explain which one you would have voted for and why.

2. How do you think the Johnsons and the Andersons felt when they realized the cook-off ended in a tie? What do you think they learned from this experience?

3. Why do you think the town's residents gathered to watch the Thanksgiving cook-off, and how did it bring the community together?

4. If you were a member of the Johnson or Anderson family, how would you contribute to the Thanksgiving cook-off tradition in the following years, and what kind of gravy would you create to impress the judges?
