

Name _____

Reflections Within

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. If you looked into the Mirror of Erised, what do you think you would see? Why?
2. Do you think it is good or bad for people to see their deepest desires? Explain your answer.
3. How does the Mirror of Erised compare to real-life situations where people focus too much on what they want instead of what they have?
4. Why do you think Dumbledore warns against “dwelling on dreams and forgetting to live”? How does this apply to everyday life?

