

Name _____

Shaped by Dreams

Short Answer Key

1. Her grandfather told her stories that inspired her to travel and challenged her to make the world more beautiful.
2. Traveling helped her appreciate the beauty of the world and realize she wanted to leave something behind.
3. She saw wild lupines growing near her home and realized how flowers could bring beauty to the world.
4. The flowers brightened the town, inspired people to care for nature, and encouraged them to do good things.
5. (Varied responses) Some may say traveling was most important because it fulfilled her childhood dream, while others may say making the world beautiful was more meaningful because it helped others.

