

Name _____

Changing Beliefs

Short Answer Key

1. He thought it was just an old object with no real power.
2. Herbert's death and the arrival of the two hundred pounds convinced them that the wishes came true.
3. The knocking increased suspense and fear, making the reader wonder what was on the other side of the door.
4. He feared that whatever had returned might not truly be his son.
5. They learned that trying to change fate can have terrible consequences.

