

Name _____

No Place Like Home

Short Answer Key

1. At first, Dorothy sees Kansas as dull, but by the end, she realizes that home is special because it is where she belongs.
2. Dorothy believes the Wizard is powerful and can use magic to send her home, but she later learns that she had the power all along.
3. The silver shoes symbolize Dorothy's ability to find her way home and the idea that we often have what we need inside us.
4. Just like Dorothy, the Scarecrow, Tin Woodman, and Cowardly Lion learn that they already have the qualities they were searching for.
5. Dorothy's journey teaches that home is not just a place, but where we feel loved and safe, and that sometimes we don't realize its importance until we are far away.

