

Name _____

Love and Power

Short Answer Key

1. Edward believes he should make decisions for Bella because he sees himself as stronger and wants to protect her from danger.
2. Bella challenges Edward by insisting on being part of his world and making her own choices, even when he disagrees.
3. Edward leaves Bella because he believes she will be safer without him in her life.
4. Bella's insistence on staying with Edward shows that she is determined and follows her heart, even when there are risks.
5. At first, Edward is in control, but over time, Bella becomes more confident and makes more decisions for herself.

