

Name _____

Signs and Shadows

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Some may say Caesar should have listened and avoided danger, while others may believe his fate was already decided.
2. Shakespeare used supernatural events to make the play dramatic and to show that fate was always present.
3. The omens warn of what is coming, but people still have the choice to act differently.
4. Answers will vary, but students should explain their beliefs about signs and fate.

