

Name _____

Changing Beliefs

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. People sometimes ignore warnings because they don't believe something bad will happen to them, just like the Whites dismissed Morris' warning.
2. Answers will vary, but students should explain whether they think grief justifies taking such a risk.
3. She likely felt sadness, confusion, and disappointment, realizing that her son was truly gone.
4. Responses should discuss the risks and benefits of using the paw, showing personal reflection.

