

Name _____

Unintended Consequences

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What warning did Sergeant-Major Morris give about the monkey's paw?
 - a) It only works once.
 - b) It only works on special occasions.
 - c) It brings good luck to its owner.
 - d) It grants wishes, but at a terrible cost.

2. Why did the Whites wish for two hundred pounds?
 - a) To test if the monkey's paw really worked.
 - b) To buy a new house.
 - c) To bring Herbert back to life.
 - d) To travel to another country.

3. What was the consequence of the first wish?
 - a) The monkey's paw disappeared.
 - b) The family received money immediately.
 - c) Herbert died, and the company gave them two hundred pounds.
 - d) The house was destroyed.

4. Why did Mr. White make the final wish?
 - a) He wanted to wish for more money.
 - b) He was afraid of what was knocking at the door.
 - c) He wanted to make the monkey's paw disappear.
 - d) He didn't believe the paw had any power.

5. What lesson does The Monkey's Paw teach?
 - a) Be careful what you wish for.
 - b) Money can solve all problems.
 - c) Magic is always a good thing.
 - d) People should make as many wishes as possible.

