

Name _____

Journey Home

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does home mean to Odysseus at the beginning of The Odyssey?
 - a) A place where he can rest after the war
 - b) A symbol of love, family, and identity
 - c) A location he is not interested in returning to
 - d) A dangerous place full of suitors

2. Why does Odysseus struggle to return home?
 - a) He forgets how to get to Ithaca
 - b) He chooses to stay with the gods
 - c) He faces many obstacles, like storms and monsters
 - d) He decides to become a pirate instead

3. How does Odysseus change before reaching home?
 - a) He becomes more reckless and impatient
 - b) He decides that home is not important anymore
 - c) He loses his strength and confidence
 - d) He learns patience, wisdom, and self-control

4. Why does Odysseus disguise himself when he reaches Ithaca?
 - a) He wants to test Penelope's loyalty
 - b) He needs time to gather information about the suitors
 - c) He is afraid of being recognized
 - d) He is too weak to fight the suitors

5. What does The Odyssey teach us about home?
 - a) It is more than a place—it is about love, family, and belonging
 - b) It is only important if it is a place of wealth
 - c) It does not matter because adventures are more exciting
 - d) It is easy to return home if you are strong enough

