

Name _____

Coping with Loss

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is Johnny's biggest loss in The Outsiders?
  - a) Losing his best friend Ponyboy
  - b) Living in an abusive home
  - c) Failing his school exams
  - d) Getting lost in another city

2. How does Johnny's death affect Dally?
  - a) He becomes stronger and more hopeful
  - b) He ignores it and moves on quickly
  - c) He becomes reckless and makes dangerous choices
  - d) He writes a letter to Ponyboy

3. What does Johnny mean when he tells Ponyboy to "stay gold"?
  - a) Stay kind and hopeful, even after loss
  - b) Always try to be the strongest Greaser
  - c) Never talk to the Socs again
  - d) Move to a different city and start over

4. How does Ponyboy deal with his grief after losing Johnny and Dally?
  - a) He stops talking to everyone
  - b) He writes his story to understand his feelings
  - c) He becomes just like Dally
  - d) He decides to leave the Greasers

5. What does The Outsiders teach about loss?
  - a) That it only affects young people
  - b) That it only happens to Greasers
  - c) That it is not an important part of life
  - d) That it can make people stronger or destroy them

