

Name _____

Finding Home

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why is Max frustrated with his home at the beginning of the story?
  - a) His mother doesn't let him play outside.
  - b) He doesn't like his dinner.
  - c) He feels like home is full of rules and punishments.
  - d) His friends don't come over to play.

2. What makes Max think being king of the Wild Things is fun at first?
  - a) He can do whatever he wants without rules.
  - b) He builds a castle on the island.
  - c) The Wild Things take care of him like his mother does.
  - d) He learns how to control his emotions.

3. Why does Max begin to feel lonely in the land of the Wild Things?
  - a) The Wild Things become mean to him.
  - b) He misses love and care from his family.
  - c) The Wild Things make him do all the work.
  - d) He realizes the island is too small.

4. What does Max's warm dinner at the end of the story symbolize?
  - a) That his mother still loves and cares for him.
  - b) That he is still a king.
  - c) That he was dreaming the whole time.
  - d) That he is being punished again.

5. What does Max learn about home by the end of the story?
  - a) Home is full of too many rules.
  - b) He should never leave his home again.
  - c) The Wild Things would make a better family.
  - d) Home is where he is loved and cared for.

