Name _____

Language of Friendship

Short Answer

1. How did Mia and Luca communicate on the island, and what did Luca show the group as a result?

2. What activities did the children enjoy on the island, and how did they express their thoughts and desires without using words?

3. What did the children learn about friendship and communication from their adventure on the island?

4. How did the children feel about their friendship after their adventure on the island, and why was it even stronger than before?

5. In what ways did the children show that love and laughter are universal in the story?

© ReadingDuck.com