Settings

The setting is where and when a story takes place. The setting is an important part of a story.

DIRECTIONS: For each story idea, think of a setting where the story might take place. Briefly describe the setting and say why you think it would be a good setting for each idea.

Story Idea	A good setting would be
A boy accidentally gets launched into space alone.
A girl and her family move into a house with a ghost.
Two kids from very different backgrounds meet and become friends.
A dog who gets lost finds his way home by himself.
