Name _____ Infinitives

Infinitive Phrases

An infinitive phrase is an infinitive with modifiers or a compliment that all act together as a single part of speech.

EXAMPLES: My fish wants to swim in the ocean.

It's so great to have a fish.

I really want my fish to be happy.

DIRECTIONS: Underline the infinitive phrase in each sentence below.

1. Meg decided to take the day off.

2. I asked Jim to call me when he got home.

3. My dad declined to try the squid.

4. Henry was the one to discover the clues.

5. Hank is the kid to beat in this race.

6. She has a decision to make about college.

7. Jim is afraid to sleep in the dark.

© ReadingDuck.com