

Name _____ Plural Pronouns

Plural Pronouns

Use a pronoun in place of a noun or another pronoun. Like nouns, pronouns can be either singular or plural. They can also be subjects or direct objects in a sentence.

Match each group of words to a pronoun that can represent them.

- | | |
|---|-------|
| 1. women (subject) | those |
| 2. shoppers (direct object) | them |
| 3. A group that includes me (direct object) | us |
| 4. Jane and I (subject) | we |
| 5. the quilts (subject) | they |

Read each sentence. On the line, write the pronoun that can replace the underlined word.

6. My sisters are away at college. _____

7. Evan and I will catch up with you later. _____

8. The pens on my desk belong to my dad. _____

9. I congratulated the happy couple. _____

10. Our teacher gave me and my classmates homework. _____

11. Those kids are always outside playing. _____

