

Name _____ Compare and Contrast

Compare and Contrast

To compare things means to look for things that are the same. To contrast things, you look for things that are different. When comparing and contrasting in the same piece of writing, transition words signal comparison or contrast to the reader.

Compare and contrast yesterday with today. Use transition words to signal to the reader whether you are comparing or contrasting.

