

Challenge Your Readers

A concluding sentence tells the reader they are coming to the end of a paragraph. One strategy for writing a concluding sentence is to restate the main idea. A concluding sentence should begin with a transition word or phrase which lets the reader know that the conclusion is coming.

DIRECTIONS: Write a concluding sentence for each topic sentence that challenges your readers.

1. Children who spend time outdoors are happier and healthier.

2. A diet rich in fruits and vegetables fights chronic disease.

3. It is important for families to celebrate life's milestones together.

4. Working at home requires a dedicated workspace.
