

Name _____

Dad's Guide to Parenthood: A Laugh-Filled Adventure

Short Answer Key

1. John made mundane tasks like grocery shopping more fun for his kids by making silly faces to entertain them.
2. John believed in being the "yes" dad because it led to unforgettable experiences and created special moments with his kids.
3. John turned the bathroom flooding incident into a learning opportunity by teaching his kids about water displacement and how to clean up the mess.
4. John celebrated small wins to boost his kids' confidence and create a positive atmosphere at home.
5. John used the art of making silly faces to entertain his kids during long car rides.

