

ANSWERS

logical fallacy: an illogical or misleading argument cognitive bias: the tendency to act in an irrational way due to our limited ability to process information objectively; rooted in the way the brain actually works false dilemma: presenting a limited number of options as if they were the only options available.