

ANSWERS

Memoir

It has a focus (a particular event in history or period in the author's life).

It is relatable.

It is descriptive of both people and events.

It has a transformation/character arc.

it is a personal story that ties to something universal.

Focuses on reflection and emotional connection with reader

Autobiography

Tells the story of the author's life

Focuses on the facts of the life

Its focus is on history rather than making any emotional connection.

Both Memoir and Autobiography

It is written in first person singular point of view.

It is true.

It is written by the person that it is about.