

Name _____

The Veteran's Journal Mystery

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How did the young friends work together to decode the secret message in Henry Mitchell's journal, and what did this teamwork reveal about their friendship?
2. In what ways did the stories and experiences of elderly residents add depth and context to Henry's journal and the history of their community?
3. Why do you think the young friends chose to return the war medals and letters to a local museum?
4. How did the quest to learn about Henry Mitchell's life and the sacrifices of World War II veterans deepen the young friends' appreciation for history and the values of peace and friendship?

