

Name _____

The Secret Tunnel Bash

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How do you think Madame Enigma, the math teacher, came up with the idea for the secret party in the underground tunnels, and what motivated her to host it?
2. In what ways can creative and interactive approaches to learning, like the party in the tunnels, make subjects like math more enjoyable for students?
3. If you were to organize a unique celebration for the 100th day of school, what theme or activities would you choose, and why?
4. How did the surprises and experiences at the party contribute to fostering a positive and memorable school community?

