Wisdom of the Nguzo Saba Mentor

Short Answer Key

1. Mama Nia advised Amani to practice the Nguzo Saba principle of Ujima by volunteering in community projects and being ready to help others in their village.
2. The Nguzo Saba principle of Ujamaa emphasizes supporting local businesses and working together for economic stability. Mama Nia suggested that Amani embrace it by shopping locally and considering starting or joining a cooperative to create economic opportunities for their community.
3. Mama Nia defined the Nguzo Saba principle of Kujichagulia as being about defining oneself and shaping one's destiny. She recommended that Amani embrace it by setting goals, believing in themselves, and taking responsibility for their actions.
4. One possible Nguzo Saba principle that Amani applied in their life was Ujima (collective work and responsibility). They volunteered in community projects and helped others, embodying the principle of working together for the common good.
5. Mama Nia's guidance had a profound impact on Amani's journey and their village, as Amani diligently applied the Nguzo Saba principles in their life and became a positive force for change in the community.
