

Name _____

The Mystery of the Missing Presents

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Betty Baker was known for her creativity and meticulous designs, while Ginger Snapson was known for her spicy gingerbread. Their differing personalities and baking styles fueled the rivalry.
2. Betty's gingerbread village was admired for its intricate details, and Ginger's gingerbread dragon was impressive due to its fiery spiciness, which made both stand out.
3. The town's reaction emphasizes that different tastes and talents should be appreciated, promoting diversity and understanding.
4. Betty and Ginger decided to collaborate because they recognized that their strengths complemented each other. It benefited them by creating a popular line of gingerbread cookies and brought joy to Sweetville.

