

Name _____

Choice or Chance?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why does Stanley believe he has bad luck?
 - a) He always makes bad decisions
 - b) He lost his father's invention
 - c) His family believes they are cursed
 - d) The Warden tells him he is unlucky

2. How does Stanley start taking control of his own future?
 - a) By escaping Camp Green Lake alone
 - b) By teaching Zero to read and helping him survive
 - c) By refusing to dig any more holes
 - d) By writing letters home every day

3. What event suggests that the family curse might be real?
 - a) The shoes fall from the sky and land near Stanley
 - b) The Warden admits she cursed the family
 - c) Stanley finds a new pair of shoes in the desert
 - d) Stanley's great-grandfather warns him in a dream

4. What lesson does Holes teach about fate and free will?
 - a) People have no control over their own lives
 - b) Fate decides everything, and people can't change their future
 - c) Luck can influence events, but choices matter more
 - d) A curse is the strongest force in the world

5. What does Stanley's story show about how people can change their future?
 - a) By waiting for good luck
 - b) By following rules without question
 - c) By ignoring problems and hoping they go away
 - d) By making smart and kind choices

