

Name _____

Vivid Words

Short Answer

1. How does Rawls' description of the Ozark Mountains help set the mood of the story?
2. Why does Rawls use sensory details when describing Billy's hunting experiences?
3. What effect does personification have on the reader's understanding of the setting?
4. Give an example of a sentence from the passage that uses strong descriptive language.
5. How does the way Rawls describes nature make the reader feel like they are part of the story?

