

Name _____

The Tree's Tricky Revenge

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Imagine you were one of the children visiting Oliver on Arbor Day. How would you feel if you couldn't carve your initials on the tree, and what lesson do you think you would learn from the experience?
2. Do you think Oliver's plan to teach the children a lesson was fair? Why or why not?
3. If you were one of Oliver's forest friends, what role would you want to play in the mischievous plan? Explain your choice.
4. How might the children's behavior change after they couldn't carve their initials on Oliver anymore? Predict what they might do differently in the future.

