

Name _____

The Great Book Swap

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Describe a humorous situation that occurred when characters from different books were swapped.
2. How did the characters feel about being in unfamiliar stories, and how did they adapt to their new surroundings?
3. Can you think of another way the characters could have returned to their original stories besides performing acts of bravery or solving problems?
4. Why did the librarian find the books neatly arranged on the shelves the next morning?

