The Tree's Tricky Revenge

Short Answer Key

1. Oliver's plan was to have his forest friends help him distract and prevent the children from carving their initials on him on Arbor Day.
2. Oliver's forest friends were Rusty the Raccoon (stole tools), Bella the Squirrel (distracted kids), and Grumpy the Owl (added to the commotion).
3. Rusty the Raccoon stole the children's carving tools and hid them in Oliver's branches.
4. Oliver decided to take action because he was tired of being climbed and carved on Arbor Day.
5. Oliver felt satisfied after his plan succeeded.
