

Name _____

The Flag Hunter's Quest

Short Answer Key

1. Max felt a deep sense of responsibility to restore the torn flag because he had a deep admiration for the American flag and recognized its significance as a symbol of freedom and unity.
2. Max's journey to restore the flag connected him with his community by allowing him to learn about the history and significance of the flag from veterans, the historical society, and various landmarks. It also involved the community in the restoration process.
3. The restored flag represented values and ideals such as resilience, patriotism, and the enduring spirit of America to Max and his community. It was a symbol of unity and honor.
4. The flag restoration ceremony brought a sense of unity and patriotism to Max and the community. It was a moment of pride and accomplishment, strengthening the bonds within the community and reinforcing the flag's significance.

