

Name _____

The Mystery of the Hanukkah Carnival

Short Answer Key

1. The children were motivated to investigate the strange occurrences at the Hanukkah carnival because they were intrigued by the mysterious happenings and wanted to uncover the truth.
2. The young sleuths discovered a dusty old menorah and a hidden message on the wall, and they knew it was related to the mystery because the menorah's candles flickered and the message mentioned an ancient Hanukkah spell.
3. Sarah and Max broke the spell by reciting a heartfelt Hanukkah prayer, which seemed to soothe the ancient magic and stop the carnival's strange activities. This shows the power of tradition and faith in overcoming challenges.
4. The townsfolk felt grateful and celebrated the young sleuths for solving the mystery and saving the carnival from its strange night-time adventures.
5. After the spell was broken, the atmosphere at the Hanukkah carnival became joyful and filled with wonder, as families gathered to celebrate the holiday without the eerie occurrences of the past.
