

Name _____

Twisted Choices

Short Answer Key

1. He believes that the old man's eye is unbearable and that removing it is the only way to find peace.
2. His guilt appears as the sound of a heartbeat, which grows louder and drives him to confess.
3. The eye represents the narrator's fear and paranoia, as he believes it is watching him.
4. He is confident because he cleaned up all evidence and acts friendly with the police.
5. The sound of the heartbeat becomes unbearable, making him think the police already know the truth.

