The 100 Good Deeds Challenge Chaos

Short Answer Key

1. Benny's attempt to tie shoelaces together resulted in a comical tangle of feet and laughter among the students.
2. Lucy's prank involving helium balloons caused the teacher to float away temporarily, resulting in a funny mishap.
3. Tommy was daydreaming about a superhero adventure, which led to him mistakenly putting his lunch in the fish tank instead of fish food. The fish remained unimpressed.
4. To make up for not reaching exactly 100 good deeds, the students organized a "Kindness Parade" through the school halls, spreading high-fives, candy, and joy.
5. The students learned that the true spirit of kindness cannot be measured solely by numbers. It's about making each moment brighter and sharing laughter and heartwarming deeds.
