

Name _____ Personification

Personification

Personification is a kind of figurative language that attributes human thoughts, actions, characteristics or emotions to something that is not human. For example:

The red wagon bounced merrily along the cobblestone road.

The wagon is personified as feeling "merry."

DIRECTIONS: Complete each sentence, personifying its subject.

1. The new toy
2. The spindly chair
3. The new house
4. The colored wooden blocks
5. My father's car
6. The last banana