

Complex Sentences

DIRECTIONS: Choose a subordinating conjunction to combine each pair of sentences into a single complex sentence.

now that

whereas

however

which

unless

even if because

where

1. I like this harness. I got it for my dog online.
2. I'm a reader. My twin is not.
3. I'll help you. You are being annoying.
4. We should stay friends. We have been through a lot.
5. Here's the house. I grew up here.
6. I will run. My knee may start acting up.
7. I made an effort. It went unacknowledged.
8. I will call you. I have your number.

