

Name _____ Paradox

Paradox

- | | | |
|---|------|-------|
| 1. A paradox is a statement that appears to contradict itself. | True | False |
| 2. You can never make any sense out of a paradox. | True | False |
| 3. Paradox is a synonym for oxymoron. | True | False |
| 4. In literature, a paradox is a way to engage the reader. | True | False |
| 5. Paradoxes are fairly obscure and rarely encountered in everyday life. | True | False |
| 6. Paradoxes are only found in literature. | True | False |
| 7. The following is a paradox: The only way out of something is through it. | True | False |
| 8. The following is a paradox: The louder you are, the less that people hear you. | True | False |
| 9. Writers use paradoxes to create verbal or situational irony. | True | False |
| 10. Paradox is a synonym for antithesis. | True | False |